

[Student Poster Competition]

15th Annual Conference

*Latinos in the Heartland:
Building Bridges, Dialogue, and Opportunity*

Columbia, Missouri
June 8-10, 2016
www.cambiodecolores.org

[Key Dates]

- February 1, 2016: Deadline for submitting abstracts of posters
- March 1, 2016: Notification of accepted abstracts
- June 8-10, 2016: Fifteenth Cambio de Colores Conference – Latinos in the Heartland: Building Bridges, Dialogue, and Opportunity

All students are invited to participate in a student poster competition. Posters can share your research, best practices, case study or relevant project related to integration of Latinos, minorities, and immigrants. Please see the Call for Presentations to learn more about the conference focus and the theme descriptions, and how to submit your poster abstract (due Feb 1, 2016). If you have any questions, please contact decolores@missouri.edu.

Posters will be judged by a team of three professors who will pick a first, second and third place winners. All conference participants will also vote to choose the winner of the Peoples' Choice Award. The first place and Peoples' Choice winners will each receive a $100 gift card.

[Criteria]

Design of Poster:

1. Layout: Is the poster layout well done? Are font sizes appropriate, graphics readable, etc...?
2. Organization: Is content organized in a logical manner? For instance, the research problem, approach and results are easily understood.

Poster Content:

1. Background/Goals: Does the poster present sufficient context for the reader to understand the purpose and originality of the project as well as the background and motivation for the project?
2. Approach: Does the poster present sufficient data on the methods used for the reader to understand and judge the quality of the approach?
3. Discussion and Conclusion: Does the poster share an understanding of the project and the implications for other researchers and/or practitioners, and how it affects institutions or communities?